

Find the right clothing size for your child

NORDBJØRN

petite chérie

Here is a size guide which indicates what different sizes may fit your child the best. The measurements in the size charts are given in centimeters (referred as centilong in the guide). The chart also shows age, which can give a pointer to which size to choose if you have not been able to measure your child.

Please note that the size guide only functions as an indicator.

How do I measure?

The best way to find out what size fits your child is to measure each section on your child's body. Using a tape measure, measure directly against the body in centimeters to determine your child's size.

- A
Length
Make sure your child is standing with their back to the wall and that their heels are touching the wall. Measure from head to heel.
- B
Chest
Lift your child's arms a bit and measure around the body along the largest part of the chest, over the shoulder blades.
- C
Waist
Measure around the waist in height with the belly button.
- D
Hips
Make sure your child stands with their feet together and measure around the widest part of the hip.
- E
Inner leg
Measure the inside of the leg from the crotch down to the floor.
